General Administrative Services, Page 6

Recap

So do any or all of the above belong in the facility manager’s responsibility? As we will say all too often in this class: maybe yes, maybe no. It all depends on the organization. “So,” you may ask, “if it may or may not be an FM responsibility, why are we studying about it?” Because if it IS an FM responsibility, wouldn’t it be nice to know to whom to go for answers? Will anything you do as part of your operation affect or be affected by any of these functions? And if it is NOT an FM responsibility, it may be YOUR responsibility, so wouldn’t it be nice to know a little about it? And you thought this section was going to be about secretaries.
